PASTOR CINDY'S NOTE

On May 24, we celebrated the festival of Pentecost. We heard the story from Acts 2 about the Spirit of God coming with a roaring wind and tongues of fire. The Holy Spirit filled the disciples, prompting them to speak in different languages, empowering them to speak in ways that reached multitudes with the good news of Christ's life, death, and resurrection. At Christ Lutheran Church in Roanoke, Virginia, that same Spirit is moving today, calling us to open our doors wide to our neighbors.

Pentecost is the birth of the church, and its hallmark is hospitality. On that first day, barriers of language and culture dissolved as everyone heard the good news. The gospel spread because everyday people were transformed by the Spirit and immediately invited their neighbors into community. As members of Christ Lutheran, we carry that same holy fire. We too are called to be the invitation that brings God's love to life in our community.

I know inviting someone to church can feel intimidating for all kinds of reasons. So I invite you to think first about the ways this congregation is important and meaningful to you. Perhaps it's the peace you find in our sanctuary, the laughter at fellowship events, and the joy we experience as we serve others together. Our neighbors are searching for that exact sense of belonging. Just by inviting a friend to a worship, Second Sundays in the Summer, a Bible Study, or one of our serving ministries, you are sharing the good news of God's love for them.

Look around your neighborhood, your workplace, and your social circles. Who needs a community where grace is unconditional and all are welcome? Challenge yourself to extend one warm, personal invitation this month. The Holy Spirit is already moving in our congregation and the relationships we share. There's no better day than today to welcome others to "Come and see."

In Peace and Hope,
Pastor Cindy

JIGSAW PUZZLES

I've become aware that many of us enjoy working jigsaw puzzles.

Wondering if there is an interest in getting together to puzzle over the pieces together while getting to know each other better.

We could meet at the church (preferably daytime) and two or three share a puzzle project together.

If we don't finish, we could store it until we met again.

Weekly or Monthly?

Let me know what you want to do .

I have 500 and 1000 pieces to get us started or bring your own challenges.

Let me know if you're interested and we'll meet to iron out the details.

Linda

Change your light bulbs to led.

They use much less energy than traditional bulbs. Most led bulbs pay for themselves through energy savings in just a few months they also last much longer!

JUNE FINANCIAL REPORT

June Financial Report:

Below are the financial figures for April. The congregation's good financial stewardship continues to keep the income, and expenses close to the budget. There continue to be some physical plant needs that are not always anticipated. However, one expense that has been planned for is an updating of carpeting and painting in the church office. We anticipate this to occur by the summer.

Month	Monthly Income	Monthly Ex-penses	YTD Budgeted	YTD Received	YTD Spent
January	$29,635	$41,180	$58,308	$29,635	$58,308
February	$46,712	$37,966	$99,503	$76,347	$79,195
March	$54,584	$53,980	$141,223	$130,931	$133,666
April	$41,148	$46,255*	$182,543	$172,079	$179,922*

There was sufficient money in our operating funds that allowed us to transfer $80,000 to the Wells Fargo Investment account. The investment account has $2,181,248 as of May 14, 2026.

The audit team is conducting a review of the financial records. Thanks to Sue, Mark and Bruce for their help with this effort.

Once again, we thank all for your continued support of the ministry of Christ Lutheran Church.

Jim,
Finance Committee Chair
